The Flipside Project
Newcastle Art Gallery

Friday July 5th @ 7pm

This event is by Donation - Suggested donation of $15 per person to secure tickets

Youth Ensemble members of The Flipside Project (Catapult Dance Choreographic Hub's youth initiative) will perform a full length contemporary dance performance at the Newcastle Art Gallery. This promenade performance will have audiences walking through the gallery viewing dance, film and taking in the Gallery Exhibitions: The sea calls me by name: by artist James Drinkwater & The nature of abstraction: Virginia Cuppaidge

This amazing performance includes a choreographic and performance exchange with Rutherford Dance Company: Youth, Birmingham UK who will be spending a week collaborating with the Senior Flipside Ensemble in Newcastle developing a new contemporary dance work.

Performances by Catapult's Senior Aboriginal Ensemble, Senior Ensemble, Senior Indigenous Dance Film and Rutherford Dance Company will also be part of the program.

Watch the incredible performance before The Flipside Project: Senior Ensemble and the Rutherford Dance Company: Youth head to Melbourne to participate and perform at the International Australian Youth Dance Festival. This Festival incorporates youth companies from across the globe including:

High Kicks - Dance Ensemble, India
Rutherford Dance Company Youth, England
The CSF Traditional Music/Dance Ensemble, Ghana
THE PRESENCE PROJECT Moving Minds, Singapore
Wagana and DUST Youth Dancers, Australia
Company Wokpemi, Ivory Coast

Dansebryggeriet, Stands&Dans Denmark in collaboration with Hurja Piruetti, Finland
The Flipside Project, Australia

YDance (Scottish Youth Dance) - National Youth Dance Company of Scotland

This project is possible due to the support of: Newcastle Art Gallery & Create NSW
